THE MINING BOARD

The election of a Mining Board has taken place at a most opportune time, the members of the board have all of them, during the AUCTION. past season, had practical experience of the working of the existing laws and regulations in respect of the holding and working of claims, the influence which they exercise upon mining operations generally, and their effect upon the value of mining property, so far as concerns Williams Creek and the surrounding districts where deep diggings only are being worked. And at the period the election took place, the 8th inst., there was abundance of time for the board to meet and deliberate upon such changes as AT THEIR SALESROOM they should deem it desirable to recommer His Excellency the Governor to make in the mining laws. We believe that the Board elected is one which will possess the confidence of the whole mining population; and Government in carrying out any suggestions of such men will at all events have the satisfaction of assuming that upon a sound 50 Boxes Adamantine Candles; knowledge of gold-mining affairs and general requirements, the Board will bring to bear a 10 Cases Sardines, 1-4 and 1-2; thorough and intimate experience of the 30 hf. bbls Dried Apples; operation of the present system prevailing in Cariboo. Most of the members elected to 25 Kegs and hf. bbls Split Peas; serve in this, the first Mining Board of British Columbia, are well known both here and up country; many of them are both old Fraser river prospectors and California miners, and Black, has had considerable experience at English and California Cheese; one at least, our respected townsman Dr. the gold mines of Australia. We have then every reason to hope that any system recommended by the Board will be for the good of the mining districts. There is a strong feeling amongst many of the miners on Williams Creek in favor of allowing a free miner to hold any number of claims he may please by purchase, provided he works all claims which he holds; and we know that this feeling is participated in by many if not all the members of the board; 2 " Double Soled we may therefore expect that a recommendation to alter the present preventive law will be one of the first steps of that body. In connection with this, another most important question must come under their consideration, that is the proposal made by the Grand Jury to simplify the sale and mortgage of mining claims. The present laws in respect of these two matters which have great effect upon the introduction of capital

With respect to holding more than two claims it is a regulation which has an opposite effect upon placer or shallow diggings, and deep shafts and drifts such as are the present mines on Williams Creek, it is very desirable that the rights of poor miners should be protected, and in as much as the operates against monopoly in claims, we believe that it works well in all poor man's diggings, and it would not be at all desirable that it should be repealed generally in the mining districts of British Columbia. But where mining operations cannot be successfully carried on except at great expense; it is certainly most desirable that capitalists should not be restricted in their space.
We should suggest subdivisions of the mining district, so that whilst one law would be applicable to all, by-laws and rules and regulations suitable for each particular dis trict as occasion requires may be framed. laws affecting mines many miles away and of a totally different character to the deep diggings of Williams Creek.

Witness in aid of the repair and lighting fund. Excellent sermons were preached by the Rev. the Rector in the morning, and by the Rev. W. S. Reece in the evening. The collections were not so large as might have been hoped for, considering the importance of the object. The members of the Church of GEORGE PEARKES Signed HENRY WALTON, England are proverbially liberal in support of their clergy, and in the establishment and maintenance of their churches and schools in laces where the church is disconnected with the state, as is the case in this colony. I would remind the members of this congrega tion, that the repairs of St. John's Church are wholly dependent upon their voluntary contributions, and that certain repairs are absolutely necessary before the winter sets in, and it is their duty as well as their interest to come forward liberally, to enable the Com mittee to carry out the necessary work. would suggest to the choir, in whose ranks are some of the best vocalists of the town. that the performance of an oratorio or a concert of sacred and other music for the benefit of this fund would, in all probability, bring in a considerable amount, besides conferring a great treat upon the community. If no other room be available for such a pur pose, we presume, that leave could be obtained to hold it in the Supreme Court. From the deplorably bad state of the sidewalks it would not be desirable for anything of the sort to take place at St. John's Church, Government street, opposite the Ballarat. except in very fine dry weather and on a moonlight night, it is most dangerous for ladies to walk along the side-walks leading to this church on a dark night. Irrespective of the mud-holes through which they have to SUBURBAN FIVE ACRE LOT NO. 14 wade, there are many places in which a false step would endanger a bad fall, and the crossings are so bad as to be worse than useless. Reid, Lewis and Hicks.

Councillor Reid was voted to the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read, Mr. Copland rose and moved that the portion of the minutes with reference to the preparation of the gas contract be expunged, as it was contrary to the provisions of the Corporation Act to vote the expenditure of money when there were not five councillors to vote.

Mr. Searby explained that the motion was only for a committee to prepare the contract, and that it would not be signed or carried out until confirmed by a full meeting.

Mr. Copland then withdrew his motion.

ROAD TO THE SPRINGS.

A petition was read from the committee appointed at a public meeting held to consider the best steps to be taken to improve the road to the Springs, praying the Corporation to make good the portion of Cook street, between Alfred and Johnson streets, to which latter street the road is already macadamized. MILBERY DAY .- This individual was again brought before Mr. Pemberton yesterday, charged with being a rogue and vagabond. Serjeant Blake stated that on the 15th inst. he had a charge against a man called "Buckskin Bill" of supplying spirits to Indians, and had reason to believe that he suspected witness was looking for him, and hid himself in the vicinity of Mr. Steele's residence, in company with Day. Proceeded there in company with officer Curry, found the man company with officer Curry, found the man they were looking for shut up in some back premises with the prisoner, Day pushed against the door so as to prevent the officers from entering, but they forced the door open, and Day exclaimed "Oh! you're fooled."

They then saw the opposite door open, and the other man making off. Witness recognized a bat belowing to the monthly were the other man making oil. Witness recog-nized a hat belonging to the man they were searching for, who escaped into the woods. He then arrested Day as an abettor, Buckskin Bill was charged with supplying over 100 gallons of spirits to Indians. Witness then gave a short outline of Day's antecedents. Officer Curry corroborated Blake's evidence. Supprintendent Smith stated that he was Superintendent Smith stated that he was present in April, 1859, when Day was convicted of whisky-selling, and fined £10. He had also been charged with gambling, but had been received as Queen's evidence against the proprietor of the house. Mr. Wyllie said he occupied the premises in question, an old man named Lake, by request of Mrs. Steele, was allowed to occupy the back premises, and Day had come there occasionally as a friend of Lakes. The further inquiry was here adjourned for one day. Superintendent Smith stated that he was

The entertainment began with an overture, very well performed, by the whole troupe, followed by songs by the different members, "Aunt Jominah's Plaster," by Harry Courtaine, causing roars of laughter and loud applause. A grand walk-around gave Miss Jessie and Md'lle. Lameroux a good opportunity of exhibiting to the audience their skill as dansteus. The gem of the evening, however, was the laughable comedy entitled "His Laderoux and this body was interred yesterday in the Indian cemetery, his blankets having been previously distributed among his kith and stages," in which Harry Courtaine as O'Callaghan perfectly convalsed the audience by his rich delineations of Irish wit and drollery. An attractive bill is promised for tonight, a prominent feature in which is the laughable Irish farce of "Kiss Your Father."
As the house will doubtless be jammed again, those who want a good seat had better go early.

The officer ordered him away several times but he placed himself in a beer cask and said that it was his state cabin. The officer said it was no place for him and he must move away. Kelly declined, saying he would not take his watch on deck, whereupon the officer arrested him. In reply to the magistrate Kelly suid he came from Dauglas and was "dhrunk over night but was better now." He described himself as a miner hon." Mr. Copland was of opinion that this was one of the most important measures the Council could take into consideration, he therefore moved that a Committee be appointed to ascertain whether the petition had been legally signed, and if so to order specifications to be prepared and tenders to be called for the work.

Mr. Pudwell introduced his motion for a committee on the public expenditure. He almost intended to the motion of equipy of the hon. Senior member for Victoria, but thought that it hardly met the ease; the public who contributed the funds thought they were entitled to know how these funds were spent. He thought no one would question the correctness of the Treasurer, nor of the Auditor, but that was not the question; the public wish to know what the public expenditure is. A committee is granted in every colony in Her Majesty's dominions, and he hoped it would be so here to remove the ignorance which prevailed on this subject.

visited the house of a Mr. Schwaritz, about twelve miles from Jefferson City, in Cole County, and, on demanding admittance, they were refused by Miss Schwaritz, a young lady of fifteen. They replied that they would come in, at the same time trying to break down the door. While this was going on, the other inmates of the house. viz: Mr. Schwaritz, John Wise, Capt. Golden, Government horse dealer, and a young man in bisemploy, all left, taking with them (as they supposed) all the arms and ammunition. In their hasty rotreat they left behind a revolver, which Miss Schwaritz appropriated to her own use. She went to the door, and, on opening it, presented the pistol to the leader of the gang, telling them to "come on, if they if she did not leave the door: she replied: "The first one who takes one step towards this door dies, for this is the home of my parents, and my brothers and sisters, and am able to and shall defend it." Here is an instance of true courage: A young girl of lifteen years of age, alter all the immates of the house, even her father, had fled, leaving her alone to her fate, with a courage worthy a Joan of Arc, boldly defended her native home against three blood-thirsty and cowardly ruflians, and by her coolness and heroic daring, succeeded in turning them from their hellish designs.

It is with feelings of no ordinary pride and pleasure the Commanding General announces this act to the citizens and soldiers in his District. There were almonds and raisins, sugar plums and sugar kisses, candles, nats and confectins of every description, while crowning the charms were several locks of greyish wool, cut from the head, we suppose, of each of the worshippers. It is surprising the number of white women, some cailing themselves ladies, who it is said take part in these unseemly mysteries. They are made proselytes to the faith by the Fetish queens, who induce them to believe they can furnish them with potent love charms, and other agencies of an unsatural character. the bowl, each threw in her offering to in-Annie, and Charlotte, was most granded.

Cramps, Spasms, wrenching pains attending an vacuation from the bowels, from a dose of mediine, is proof that the medicine thus taken is injurious. It is not the quantity of facces expelled that insures a cure. Pills and purgative medicine made of aloes and other drastic catharties are injurious, inasmuch as purgation from these obnoxi-ous drugs is induced only from the irritation they produce on the mucous membrane. They have no influence on the liver or chyle, but are carried to the lower bowels, and by their irritation evoke an evacuation. Dr. Radway's Pills are the only safe purgative to take These pills act on the liver and other secretions; hence in their operation no atraining or wrenching pains follow; the stools, instead of being thin and watery, are natural; it is the absence of the diseased humors which these imperfect pills fail to eliminate from the blood, that causes thin watery discharges; and hence when the patient has an evacuation he has to strain without effecting the desired result. A dose of Radway's Pills will insure a thorough evacua-tion; this accomplished, no further physic is re-

FEVER AND AGUE.—ASTONISHING CURES.— Dr. Egbert Simms, formerly of the Medical Col-lege. Philadelphia, and now one of the most pop-ular physicians in Minnesota, writes to a friend in New York, that Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills are working wonders in that region, in cases of Fever and Ague, and Bilious Remittent Fever. The following extracts from his remarks is published by permission of the gentleman to whom the letter was addressed: "I am not, as you know, runch in favor of advertised pills. Most of them are worthtouching the maratime interests of the countrol try.
